

THE FIVE WS OF PERSONAS

WHO: Personas represent your users.

WHAT: A persona is an archetype that represents a group of users clustered based on shared behavior, motivations, goals, pain points, or other characteristics.

WHEN & WHERE: Personas are used during the design and development process.

WHY: Personas help the people building a product develop a shared understanding of their users and design for their needs.